Buring the premiunts of typhold fever, the closing belowshive to those not already in posestimated in this city, in any quantity,) as a diswillien, Mr. L. was actually engaged in flushing the mains. Will the Advertiser have the manliness to correct its error in this instance? We will see. We are willing that a public officer who neglects his duty should be ensured, but when an official does his whole duty we think he should be commonded and not held up to public reprehension, but it is the custom of the Advertiser to misrepresent everything it touches. It cannot be fair if it would try. The fact is, the thing is crookedness personified. an invalidated and provincia commence.

We call especial attention to the fact that Mr. F. J. O'Brien has opened a Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting establishment, on Merchant street millio being field up for repairs has near Fort street, where he will be pleased to have persons call and see him and leave orders for work to be done. Mr. O'Brien is a good workmen in his line, consequently persons favoring him with orders will receive satisfaction.

Don't forget the Testimonial Benefit to be tendered Mr. George Luproil, on next Saturday evening, November 1st. Mr. L. is in every respect entitled to and deserving of the most liberal patrounge, as an encouragement to his energy in eatering to the taste of the sunsement-loving portion of Then give him a "bumper" by filling the tent on Saturday evening

> There will be a moonlight concert at Emma Square this evening, by the Royal Hawshan Band. The following is the programme:

The steamer Likelike resumed her trips last evening, going to Hilo. This was one week sooner than expected. The work done to the steamer was completed with commendable dispatch-which redounds greatly to the credit of Measrs. Tibbetts & Sorrenson, the gentlemen having it in charge, and demonstrates, beyond doubt, that our mechanics. When occasion requires it, are not only competent, but fast workmen.

It is reported that the typhold fever has made its appearance among the native population. If this is correct, it is greatly to be regretted. The Board of Health, through its authorized agent, should furnish the natives with printed instructions how to treat the discuse, or still better, make them sequainted with the use of preventatives. This course was wisely adopted and followed during the preva-

All well regulated police organizations, prohibit its members from entering drinking saloons while on duty, except in the discharge of a duty, and in fact, some municipalities to preserve a high moral standard of the corps, probibit it when off duty, but in Honolulu, this regulation is either not entorced or atterly disregarded. As the native is taboord in the use of all intoxicating drinks, this can certainly not apply to such employees of the police force.

BESEFIT BY MR. LUPROIL .- Mr. Luproil proposes giving a complimentary benefit at the Royal Hawallan Circus on the 8th prox. under the immediate patronage of His Majesty the King, to the Princess Own Guard, at which time we bespeak for him a large turn out. Mr. Luproil will use his best endeavors to make the occasion one to be remembered in this kingdom by giving one of his very best performances. Mr. Luproil should be patronized because he is not only a good manager but a man of large beart and public spirit.

made a splendid run from the Colonies on her last trip, arriving in this harbor about twelve hours on Southernship per diview On G-1227 tops to abend of time. It is pleasant to note the promptitude with which the noble vessels of the above company make their trips. They are run with so much precision that their arrivals can be counted on with the utmost certainty, which is a great convenience, not only to the traveling public, but to the business communities they serve. It will be seen by the passenger list, per City of Sydney, from this port, that she took with her a goodly number of our citizens and sojourners, to whom we bid God speed, and a pleasant voyage.

> Morus.-In conversation a lew days ago with a wellknown draper of this city, we learned a secret worth knowing, and which should be universally known It is as follows: Make a bag out of strong cotton goods, large enough to contain your woolen clothes. Sew it well, and see that there are no appertures in it through which a moth can gain access. Put a strong drawing string in the mouth of the bag. In this bag place your woolens neatly folded, and hang the bag up. The moths will not attack the cotton bug, and thus your clothes are secured from the savages of the destructive little insect. The process is so simple and so inexpensive that no person should neglect the caution, and thus save valuable articles of clothing and house wear.

Naws FROM THE ARCTIC OCEAN -By the arrival of the Hawaiian schooner Giovanni Aplani, accustomed. Captain Gilley, from the Arctic Ocean, on the 26th inst., we have information that the season up to the time the Giovanni left, had been very unpropilious for the whaling fleet. Capt. Gilley left Cape Lislan on the 15th Sept. last, and up to that date there had been no whales taken by the fleet. Capt G. brings about 1200 lbs. bone, 3000 lbs. ivory, and a large quantity of deer, bear and fox skins. He also reports encountering on the passage severe northeasterly winds. The next arrival from the Arctic regions will be the Hawailan bark Pacific, which is expected every moment, will bring later news. Up to the latest dates the whaling fleet was all in goo condition awaiting the advent of the whales, which visit the Polar regions in schools about the latter part of October or the beginning of November. Notwithstanding the bad luck thus far there may be still a good catch, as the business of taking whales is all done in a few days when the monsters make their appearance to the vicinity of those who are waiting and watching for the prey.

LET JUSTICE BE DONE.-The Advertiser of last week did Mr. Lishman, the Superintendent of the log the water pipes at stated intervals. Mr. Lish man has not neglected this important duty as charged, but on the contrary, has attended to it with great fidelity. We make mention of this fact that justice may be done a faithful public officer.

If the Advertiser had made inquiry in the proper quarter before recklessly charging Mr. Lishman seconds probable—throw a small quantity ered that about the very moment its charges were the course and drain on the premises and written, Mr. L. was actually engaged in finshing

A PLEASANT VISIT. -On Thursday last through the politeness of Mr. G. W. Macfarlane, of the firm of G. W. Macfarlane & Co. of this city, we had the pleasure of an introduction to and a few minutes chat with Mr. George Gray Macfarlane, of Glasgow, Scotland, who has been sojourning on this laland for the past three weeks. The latter gentleman is of the firm of George Gray Macfarlane & Co., who are largely engaged in the iron trade, from whom Mr. George W. Macfarlane & Co. of this city obtained the iron water pipes for the Hawalian Gorernment, which are now laid in the streets of Honolulu. In conversation with Mr. G. G. Macfarlane we obtained the information, namely: That in Glasgow the foundry men have abandoned the old practice of easting iron water pipes in horizontal sand beds, that the new method is to cast them in vertical flasks which produces pipes of greater strength, and less liable to leak than when cast by the old method. In proof of this he said that out of the whole quantity delivered (nine miles of pipe) there was but one defective section and breakage This is really remarkable, and goes to demonstrate the truth of the theory of vertical custings. To a mechanical mind the philosophy of the new method needs no argument to prove its superiority. Mr. Macfartane is a splendid specimen of a Scotch gentleman both physically and mentally, of whom it does not require much penetration to discover that be possesses all the qualities of a really practical man, with a sufficient amount of vim to put all his skill into active use when necessary. Mr. Macfarlave returned by the City of Sydney on the 27th inst. He made many friends while he was here by his frankness and courteons bearing. We wish him a pleasant voyage and safe return to the land "knowes and heather," or as Burns puts it of conest men and bounte lasses." A RUNAWAY AND ACCIDENT .- On Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock, a span of carriage borses belonging to Mr. J. H. Coney with a top-buggy attac hed became unmanageable by the driver, a half-white by the name of Burns. The borse took fright as we learn opposite the Royal Hawalian Theater, on Hotel street, in consequence of one of the wheels of the buggy coming off. The driver became alarmed for his own safety as the borses. commenced to kick and run, and he jumped from the vehicle, a pile of wood opposite the residence of Dr. McGrew compelled him to let the lines go. The horses ran down Hotel street at a rapid rate taking the buggy with them nutil they arrived at Fort street, when the off horse seemed to desire to on down Hotel street, while the near horse endeavored to turn down Fort street. In this plight the frightened animals dashed across Fort street, when they were suddenly prought up by the near horse striking his head against the iron shutter on Mr. H. S. Tregioan's store, at the corner of Hotel and Fort streets. The poor animal struck with such force that his nose and mouth were terribly smashed, and the concussion was so great that his brains were soon oozing from the wounds in his face. The horse fell of course immediately after striking he shutter. A crowd rushed to the spot and in a ow minutes liberated the off horse from the harness which did not appear to be injured. The near horse made a few frantic efforts to get up but was unable do so, and in a few minutes died from his in-It was a fortunate circumstance that there was no one in the vehicle when the collision took place, and thrice fortunate that the horses did not succeed in going down either Fort or Hotel streets as in that event there is no telling what might have appened, inasmuch as those streets were crowded with people passing and repassing. The mistortone

s greatly to be regretted as the span of beautiful mays was the finest in this kingdom, and the horse but was killed the best and most valuable of the wo animals. Mr. Coney Imported the span from California some months ago for which he paid, as we are informed, about $2,000. We cannot say whether the driver is to blame or not for the accident, but we are strongly of the belief from what we have heard about his carclessness with those spirited animals that he is not altogether blameless. The truth is that there is too much carclessness among a certain class of persons entrusted with the management of horses, in this city, and the only wonder is that they are not more evines accidents. wonder is that there are not more serious accidents.

DEPARTURE OF THE STRAMER.-The arrival and departure of the mail steamer at Honolylu is an event which although it occurs monthly, is nevertheless the occasion for a large class of persons to gratify their curiosity by going to the Esplanade wharf to see the sights. In common with this class of inquisitive persons we wended our way to the steamer wharf on Monday afternoon, and while forcements on account of the disturbed state of the there witnessed many amusing incidents. We stood watching the surging, busy throng as it passed to and tro like so many ants from the shore to the ship and back, each one lugging a trunk or parcel which they were arxious to secure on oard, for their accommodation on the voyage, We note the eagerness and fussinces of some, who were pushing their way through the crowd, with flushed faces covered with perspiration, and at the same time noted the coolness of others in the manner of their preparation. The former class that is the fussy, unmethodical class are representatives of a portion of humanity that make for themselves amount of labor with everything they do because they lack method in the management of their every day affairs. The latter class the method cal or thinking people are representatives of the order-loving, cool, calm way of doing things who are never in a hurry, never fuss and fume or get wer heated in doing their work, but who are careal to have everything done at the right time and in tue season. This latter class glide along through ife smoothly and quietly, because they observe order which "is heavens first law," But there is still another class of individuals who seem to have been born too late, and who are always behind time in everything. This class of persons seem be reft of the faculty of making a note of time, and if they are going on a journey they are sure to put off the work of preparation till the eleventh hour, and consequently are invariably "too late, too late, We saw several illustrations of this on Monday. The nour fixed for the City of Sydney to start from her wharf was 2 o'clock P. M. sharp, when everyour who purposed going was bound to be on board. But when the hour arrived and the ship was leaving the wharf there were two or three of the dilatory class who took no heed of the order and were behind as usual. One man we noticed rushing frantically along the platform, when the ship was about fifteen or twenty feet from the wharf and in motion. This individual was one of those who is never on time, and who instinctively or by some slew process in his nature is bound to be behind. He succeeded however in getting on board, by the aid of a line thrown from the ship to which be clung and was hauled on board like a sack of salt or parcel of merchandise. We next noticed a vehicle driven furiously to the wharf loaded down with trunks, fariously to the wharf loaded down with trunks, boxes, parcels, etc., etc., and another eleventh hour passenger. By this time the ship was twenty or thirty fathoms from the wharf, but these trunks, boxes and parcels had to to be put on board to gether with the owner, which was accordingly effected after no little trouble, labor and delay. It was now about half past 2 o'clock and thus one-half hour of valuable time was lost to secommodate two or three individuals who would not be in time if they could. Such people are an intolerable nuisance to themselves and everybody else.
